TITANIC BATTLE INVOLVING MILLIONS OF MEN EXTENDING OVER 266 MILES ABOUT TO BEGIN

NATIONS PREPARED FOR LIFE AND DEATH STRUGGLE ON BELGIAN FIELDS

Stage Is Set For The Bloodiest Drama Known In Human History—Battle May Last 8 Days

By Associated Press.

Paris, August 15.—Conditions under which the great battle between the Germans and the allied forces probably will be fought are the subject of an official communication issued by the French minister of war today. By its developments and the nature of the ground over which the battle will be waged, the communication says, this vast engagement will differ profoundly from the battles of other times.

"By reason of the abandonment of the attack which the Germans planned against Nancy," says the communication, "our concentration has been carried out with regularity and in its entirety and thus the whole of the French army will battle the whole of the German forces with the exception of those German troops concentrated on the eastern frontier of the empire. The violation of the neutrality of Belgium has extended the Belgian and French lines to the frontier of Holland. The next battle therefore will be from Basne to Maastricht, with several millions of men on either side. It is this enormous extension of front which will characterize the battle and it will be profoundly different from all other battles.

Battle Front 266 Miles Long

"When two adversaries engage in a battle along a front of from twenty to thirty kilometres (thirte nto twenty miles) the engagement is characterized by two features—it is rapid and immediately decisive. With a front extending over 400 kilometres (266 miles) it is not likely to be the same. It would appear imyossible from all evidence, that one of the adversaries would be able to gain decisive advantage on this front of 400 kilometres. The operations along so great a line would have varying force. We will have an advantage at several points, the Germans at other points and the line of battle will continue to be modified until one of the adversaries succeeds by a co-ordination of movements and a massive effort, in gaining some point, the superiority of which will dislodge the adversaries front and mark the end of the first battle.

Eight Days Before Definite News

"These observations have for their object the preparation for the public for a great battle, in new form, and without a precedent in history." The communication adds that news of definite results needt not be expected for at least eight days or longer.

"Blamont, seventen miles east of Luneville; Cirey, still further east, and Avricourt, occupied by a Bavarian army corps, were stormed by our troops." The announcement continues:

"The Germans are in full retreat having left their dead, wounded and prisoners. The French continued to advance to upper Vosges. The Germans gave way before them. In upper Alsace we have taken Thann. Prisoners affirm that General Von Deimling, commanding the Fifteenth Army corps, at Thann, was wounded. At St. Blaiss in the valley of the Bruche, aGerman flag was taken."

Latest Developements In European War Situation

The Petite Journal of Paris says it learned "on unimpeachable authority" that Japan is resolved to declare war on Germany.

A wireless dispatch from Berlin received in London says in an interview Imperial Chancellor Bethman-Hollweg represented the war as a "life and death struggle between the Germans and the Russians."

Paris declares officially that the Salies pass over the Vosges mountains has been occupied by French troops.

Grand Duke Nicholas of Russia, commander in chief of the army, calls on the Poles to be loyal to Russia, and promises them autonomy.

General Otto Von Emmich, German commander at Liege, is dead. He has been succeeded by General Von Der Marwitz.

Definite information has been received of a strong offensive movement by the French troops on the Franco-German frontier, extending from Luneville to Sarebourg.

Official announcement is made that Balmount, Cirey and Avincourt were captured after a Bavarian army corps was driven out. The retaking by the French of Thann, in Alsace, is officially announced and the wounding of the commander of the Fifteenth German army corps is reported.

The French war minister prepares the public for a great battle which will extend over a line more than 250 miles in length and in which several millions of men on either side will be engaged. This battle line will extend from Basle to Maastricht and the people are warned that at some points the Germans may be successful, while at other points the French will have an advantage.

It is also announced that no definite details of the battle need be expected for at least eight days.

Nothing is known of recent operations around the Liege forts.

It is reported that Germany has sent a note to France and Belgium accusing these countries of having organized a popular war against Germany and declaring that any Belgian or French private citizen not in uniform who interferes with the German troops will be shot.

The Washington government has announced itself as opposed to the floating of loans in the United States for benefit of any belligerent power.

The United States government also has notified European powers that it will regard as neutral ships chartered for the sole purpose of bringing back Americans and has asked the powers for a declaration on the subject.

The Austrian warships are at Pola, the great Austrian fortress and the entire coast has been mined.

The United States armored cruiser Tennessee with millions of dollars in gold aboard for relief of Americans in Europe is due to reach England Sunday.

MEXICO CITY IN HANDS OF CONSTITUTIONALISTS

Obregon's Army Took Peaceful Possession Of National Capitol Late Saturday

By Associated Press

Mexico City, Aug. 15.—The national capital tonight is in the hands of the constitutionalist. General Obregon marched in with his army and took peaceful possession of the city late today. The citizens greeted his soldiers with cheers.

The evacuation by the federals has been completed and constitutionalists are in the barracks which the government soldiers recently occupied. Eight special trains will leave for the front tomorrow, carrying a reception committee to welcome Gen. Carranza, first chief of the constitutionalists who will assume the presidency as soon as he enters the capital.

The city was decorated today for the first time in many months. American flags flew beside the Mexican colors. Crowds packed the streets along which it had been announced the constitutionalist troops would pass. After six hours of waiting the people were rewarded by seeing the front ranks of the main force of Gen. Obregon's army swing into the Paseo de la Reforma and commence the march toward the national palace.

It is expected that Carranza with the main body of the army will enter Mexico City tomorrow.

The Russian army brings you the solemn news of this reconciliation which effaces the frontiers severing the Polish people, whom it unites conjointly under the scepter of the Czar of Russia. Under this scepter Poland will be born again, free in her religion, her language and autonomous. Russia expects from you only the loyalty to which history has bound you. With open heart and a brotherly hand extended, great Russia comes to meet you. She believes that the sword which struck her enemies at Grouenwald is not yet rusted. Russia from the shores of the Pacific ocean to the North Sea, marches in arms. The dawn of a new life commences for you. In, this glorious dawn is seen the sign of the cross, the symbol of suffering and the resurrection of a people."

CANAL OPEN TO COMMERCE

GREAT PANAMA WATERWAY NOW OPEN TO COMMERCE OF WORLD

SHIPS GO THROUGH

Col. Goethals Well Pleased With the Handling of Lock Machinery—Others Pleased

By Associated Press

Panama, Aug 15—The Panama canal is open to the commerce of the world. Henceforth ships may pass to and fro through the great waterway which establishes a new ocean highway for trade. The steamship Ancon, owned by the United States war department, with many notable persons on board, today made the official passage which signalized the canal's opening. She left Christobal at 7 o'clock this morning and reached Balboa, on the Pacific end at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The Ancon will remain at the Balboa docks for some time, discharging her cargo this being the first commercial voyage made through the canal.

The canal will be used tomorrow for the transfer of four cargo ships. Col. George W Goethals, builder of the canal and governor of the zone, watched the operations closely and was pleased at the improved handling of the locks. He declared that even this would be improved on with time. Captain Hugh Rodman, superintendent of transportation who directed the trip, voiced similar sentiments.

JAPAN HAS NO DESIGNS ON CHINA

IF SHE JOINS IN CONFLICT IT WILL BE ONLY TO AID ENGLAND

NO NOTE FROM THE U. S.

Japanese Government Confident Her Position Understood By United States

By Associated Press

New York, Aug 15—Cable dispatches from Tokio to the East and West News Bureau, a Japanese agency, read:

"A high official o fthe foreign office says Japan has received no note whatever from the American government, in connection with the present crisis. Even in case necessity arises for Japan to take upon herself the duty of discharging her treaty obligations to Great Britain, Japan sees no need of any explanation for such an action, for she shall act with a clear conscience in conformity to justice. We are confident that the United States understands full well this position of Japan and consequently we cannot think for a moment that our good neighbor shall be swayed by any uneasiness by the attitude of Japan. Count Okuma, Japanese premier, declared that Japan, if forced to join the European conflict, will do so with the single purpose of filling her treaty obligations with her ally and of upholding the cause of justice. Her object is the maintenance of peace in the Orient. Japan's proximity to China breeds absurd rumors, but I declare that Japan acts with a clear conscience in conformity to justice and in perfect accord with her ally. Japan has no territorial ambition, but hopes to stand as the protector of peace in the Orient. This frank declaration of Japan will surely be welcomed by China with appreciation and thanks."

FRENCH VIEW OF FIGHTING

OFFICIAL STATEMENT DECLARES GERMAN PLAN DOUBLE ATTACK FAILURE

ALLIES HOLD SEAS

French Mobilization Satisfactory and Allies Co ordinating To Fullest Extent

By Associated Press

Paris, Aug 15—An official communication issued late today reviews the situation to date. It says:

"In order that opinion in France and elsewhere can have a just view and not be lost in the details of news, it is of advantage to lay down in broad lines and without seeking to judge in advance developments or events and to classify the result required. We know of from the declaration of German strategists such as Bernhardi-Falkenhayne and Van Der Goltz that the German plans provided for a quick attack on the French line upon our troops to the north of Nancy. We know equally well that a second sharp and quick attack was to have been made by passing through Belgium and then immediately striking at the French frontier. A positive proof of the verity of this double plan is found in the individual cards of mobilization directing the German reservists from the fifth to the fifteenth day of mobilization to join their regiments in French cities such as Rheims and Marne.

"This double quick attack failed. That directed against Nancy was not attempted in its entirety, the Germans finding our forces too strong, renounced the plan. We know also that the failure of this quick attack through Belgium because of the resistance of the forts at Liege, the valor of the Belgian army and the intervention of our country, has kept the Germans eight days upon the Meuse."

The war office alludes to the regularity of the French mobilization, the concentration and co ordination of the French movement with the English and Belgian allies. It continues:

"The Russian army having accelerated its mobilization will be able to operate at the same time with the French, English and Belgian armies. The Servian army now controls Herzegovina and this will cause Austria-Hungary to hesitate to continue to send her troops which during the last eight days have been on the way toward Alsace. Finally, the English and French squadrons control the seas."

CABLE CENSORSHIP IN U. S. NOT NECESSARY

Washington, Aug 15.—England, France and Russia have intimated to the United States, it was understood today, they do not regard the recent application of censorship to the wireless stations as necessarily requiring similar restrictions on cable messages.

"Cables are different from wireless," says Colville Barclay, the British charge d'affaire, "it takes several hours to communicate the movements of a ship for instance, by cable to the home government. Then the message must be relayed by wireless, all of which takes more time. The actual order is given on the territory of a belligerent to its vessel."

If the censorship was established at the cable offices it might seriously interfere with the sending of code messages to embassies and consulates. It is believed the Russian ambassador discussed this phase of the subject with the secretary of state.

Rams	7	2	5	285
Black Cats	7	0	7	.000

No changes have taken place in the standing of the Twilight League clubs, the Liepolders being still undefeated with the Irish Lads only one game behind. Interest centers in Tuesday's game, when the two leading teams will oppose each other This week's games are:

Tuesday—Irish Lads vs Liepolders.
Wednesday—Black Cats vs. Rams
Thursday—Irish Lads vs Black Cats.
Friday—Liepolders vs. Rams.

The Black Cats have been very consistent losers, having so far failed to win a game. The Rams have not been able to do anything with either the Lads or Liepolders.

GAVE WORTHLESS CHECK FOR AUTO, ARRESTED

Actions of Young Man Held By Authorities Lead To Belief He Is Unbalanced

A young man with luxurious tastes and large ideas of finance without the substance thereof is boarding with Jailor Ed Carnes while the officers are investigating some of his check deals here

The man who gave his name as G M Johnson called at the automobile salesrooms of H J Robson & Company Saturday afternoon and asked to be shown some of their cars He was first taken out in a four cylinder Marian Roadster but concluded that he liked a six cylinder touring car the best and after a demonstration said he would take it He tendered a check on the Estelline State Bank for $2250 signed 'G H Johnson in payment While the purchaser was being shown the operation of the car the bank at Estelline was called up over the telephone and from there it was learned that the young man was evidently a fellow who had bought a farm for $9 000 by issuing a check on a Cleburne bank signed G H Jackson This check was found to be worthless

Sheriff Randolph was notified and was on hand when the driver returned with the car and its purchaser The young man was placed under arrest and when searched several checks against different banks were found in his pockets One on the Farmers & Merchants bank at Childress for $1 was made payable to R W Johnson and was signed 'G H Wood Another was made payable to Self Defense" and was signed 'Ralph Jackson ' On a slip of yellow copy paper found in one of his pockets was written Have the Cleburne bank to wire the $9 000 to the Farmers & Merchants bank at Childress Texas collect

When arrested the young man admitted that he had no money in the Estelline bank to meet the check he had given but offered no explanation of his actions Sheriff Randolph believes the man is either mentally unbalanced or is a whole lot smoother than he pretends to be

JOIN DALLAS ASSOCIATION

Bankers of That City Appear To Have Gotten Better In Division of Territory

The banks of the city of Dallas seem to have put one over on their brother bankers of Fort Worth and Houston When the Vreeland Aldrich currency bill was first passed Dallas organized the National Currency Association of Dallas having many of the Dallas banks and probably a few in adjoining counties but neither Fort Worth or Houston took any action When the agitation of the European war began Dallas asked for and secured permission to amend their charter so as to take banks in any part of the State and Fort Worth organized a currency organization and Houston also made ready to organize Dallas being already organized with the entire State as its territory representing already some banks that would ordinarily do business with the other two cities and when Fort Worth and Houston noticed this and made application to also have the entire State as their territory the commissioner of currency required that the three cities divide up the territory and representatives of the three cities met for that purpose Dallas having already members in some of the counties that might be debatable insisted that she should not give up such debatable territory and therefore got the best of the division The counties of Cooke Montague, Clay and Wichita all of which are nearer Fort Worth than Dallas were assigned to Dallas as were also the counties of Bell McLennan, Williamson and Travis

It is understood that the national banks of this city are satisfied with the alignment at Dallas although one or more of them were arranging to join the Fort Worth currency association

Emergency currency to approximately $500 000 can be issued to the three banks of this city if they desire it The amount which each bank can take is 125 per cent of its capital and surplus less the amount of bank circulation already allotted to it The First National Bank and the City National Bank each carry the full amount of their capital in circulation but the National Bank of Commerce has not yet decided to take out circulation The two older National banks will join the association but the National Bank of Commerce may not

MONDAY IS DIAMOND DAY

It is the last day of our great twelve per cent discount sale on Diamonds. And the last opportunity that buyers will have to get their choice of the finest line of Gems ever offered in Wichita Falls at prices that can never again be duplicated.

Diamonds Are Going Up

The best authorities in the diamond business agree that never again will the gems be sold as low as they are now, and every indication points to at least a twenty per cent increase in the selling price. That we have offered stones at prices below the regular market price the past week has been a subject of much comment. But we know our own business. We know that we cannot carry a stock of thirty thousand dollars worth of diamonds with our present capital, and we are sacrificing future profits for ready cash. In addition to the twelve per cent discount offered on any stone, we have taken out of our loan department a number of unredeemed stones on which we made exceptionally low loans, and these we have placed on sale as special offerings. In the lot is some of the best diamonds we have ever owned, and if you are in the market for a diamond you should see these.

Senator John Sharp Williams of Mississippi expressed the true sentiment of thousands when in an interview given out the other day he made use of the following language: I think if there were a law that when ever a war is declared every member of the legislative assembly declaring it must go to the front in the first rank we would have less war than we have now and besides that we would get a lot of fools killed which would be a great advantage to the civilized world. But they don't do that way as a rule. Those who bring on our wars never get near enough to the firing line to even smell the smoke of powder.

A subscriber to The Times wants to know what steps he can take to have the ordinance providing for a tax on dogs enforced. He notices, he says, that some times there are as many as five or six dogs in one bunch and so far as he can observe none of them are wearing tags or collars. These bunches of dogs, he says are a nuisance and thinks that if the tax on dogs was enforced the city would have a few extra dollars in its treasury and there would be fewer dogs. That is a matter however which he should take up direct with the city authorities. The tax on dogs may have been abandoned. At any rate it is a matter The Times has nothing whatever to do with. It has no dog or dogs and if the irate subscriber wants to kill a few on his own account The Times is not going to take offense.

Governor Colquitt in his El Paso speech said that he had the utmost respect for the President of the United States, the Secretary of State and the Postmaster General and also for Lee Sentor Bailey. But before he finished up he said: "If you need my assistance and influence in hurling back those who live in Washington and seek to dictate the State government of Texas you may call upon me and I care not whether their names be Wilson, Bryan, Burleson, Bailey or Ball." Aside from that we suppose the distinguished gentlemen mentioned are all right. But in justice to the President as well as Mr. Bryan neither had said a word in favor of or against either one of our candidates for governor, Ball or Ferguson, until after Mr. Ferguson had intimated strongly in one of his speeches that both President Wilson and Secretary Bryan preferred him as the Democratic candidate for governor of Texas to Colonel Ball. After this was done there was nothing left for President Wilson and Mr. Bryan to do except to do as they did. Governor Colquitt may rest assured that he will be reminded of his unfair criticism of the President and Secretary of State whenever he actively gets in the race for the senatorship as he threatens to do. The great majority of Texas Democrats are with Wilson and Bryan.

As yet there is no cotton in this part of the State to market and it is perhaps well that it is so. In South and Central Texas where the 1914 crop is being picked there is no market and that which is being sold is only bringing about ten cents per pound. In some instances the bankers, merchants and those who have a surplus of cash on hand are advancing to the cotton farmers as much as $40 a bale on cotton. This will enable the producers of cotton to hold it until coditions grow better or until the European war reaches that stage where shipping across the seas will be safe. This will come about in due time just as sure as the war lasts. While Germany, England, France, Russia and Austria are fighting they cannot produce much and that means there is to be an unprecedented demand for American raised cotton as well as American food products. There is the prospect that cotton will sell for fifteen cents per pound in Texas markets before January 1st cannot be far wrong. All the American farmer needs just now is a little money to enable him to hold his products for a better market and that will come within the next thirty or sixty days. As President Wilson puts it Americans need not worry about the matter of shipping across the seas. The fellows on the other side of the pond are the ones to worry.

It is perhaps a little early to call attention to the fact that at the general election to be held in November there will be three constitutional amendments voted on. The first is that providing for the initiative and referendum, amending Section 1 Article 3. The second is to amend Article 1 Section 7 of the Constitution providing for authorizing counties bordering on the Gulf of Mexico to build sea walls. The third is the proposed amendment to the State Constitution increasing the pay of legislators from $5 per day during regular sessions of the legislature to $1,200 per annum for the first year and $5 per day for each and every special session held during the second year. The regular sessions are also to be extended. In addition to the salary of $1,200 for the first year and $5 per day for special sessions in the year next succeeding that in which any regular session is held, the proposed amendment also provides for compensation of mileage to and from the seat of government at the rate of 20c per mile the distance to be computed by the nearest and most direct route of travel regardless of railways or water routes. The present mileage allowed members of the legislature is 20c per mile. This proposed amendment will be designated in the ballot as "Amending Section 24 Article 3 of the Constitution in relation to compensation of the legislature and extending length of regular session." For the past several years legislative positions have gone a begging and in a great majority of the districts men who were capable of making laws for this State have refused to become candidates for the reason that the compensation was not sufficient. The result has been that these positions have and are now generally speaking being filled by politicians of the peanut stripe. If the people of Texas look and study this matter of increasing the pay of the legislature they will vote for the amendment and in that way send to the legislature men who are really qualified for such work. So long as things remain as now these legislative positions that should command the services of the best qualified men the State affords go to the weaklings—the fellows who can not make a success in business for themselves but are ever ready and take every advantage of the opportunities presented to thrust themselves upon the people as law makers. It is the crying shame of the State that the most important positions to be filled—that of lawmakers are given to those who are least qualified to fill them. For instance the amendment designed should receive the united support of every man who wants to see this State and her people prosper and grow. It will not be extravagance but economy. Let's pay our law makers good salaries and get in return service that is worth the money. If this amendment is adopted the expense for salaries will hardly exceed an average of $1,500 per year which is very little expense for a law making body for a State of a population of four million people.

WILL THE WARRING NATIONS BECOME REPUBLICS?

All eyes are turned on the turbulent conditions in Europe today. At this distance it is almost impossible to realize much less form an estimate of the great armies and navies that are maneuvering for position in the impending gigantic struggle.

It is true that statistical figures running into the millions have been presented for our edification but we are so used to contemplating things on a large scale that we view them with indifference when we are told that fifteen or twenty millions of men may be called to arms in the greatest war the world has ever seen.

It is too early for us to predict the victor or the vanquished—too early to forecast the ultimate results when the remnants of these great armies return from the sanguinary battle fields.

But we can at least philosophize upon a basis of a reasonable view of the world's civilization—the probable and natural outcome.

It is unnecessary to go back of the twentieth century for underlying causes leading to the present crisis. The war is on and the past is submerged into the present.

We are now concerned from a humanitarian standpoint in the future. By the caprices of three men who by accident of birth rule millions of people Europe has been turned into a slaughterhouse. The subjects of these kings and emperors had no voice in the declaration of war. But they are called on to give up their lives and property for the honor of their nation. By reasons of schools, colleges and newspapers in this latter day these subjects are no longer dumb driven cattle but the average man and woman is able to read, think and reason from cause to effect.

Then it is easy for an intelligent man or woman to predict when this European war is over and the people count up the cost in lives and property that they will take the reins of government into their own hands and declare republics. Especially when they take into consideration the expense of keeping up its numerous members of royal families.

OBSERVER

SHAPING UP FOR THE FALL CAMPAIGN

If primary returns in several states are to be taken as indicative of which way the wind is blowing it must be concluded that the strength of the progressives has dwindled to an almost unimportant factor, and that the republicans will present a practically united front to the democrats in the elections this fall.

This condition is further emphasized by the fact that Colonel Roosevelt the king bull mooser of them all has indorsed a republican for the governorship of New York and to the extent at least has shown himself willing to realign his influence with his old party.

In Kansas and Missouri the progressives according to primary results have turned out to be a negligible quantity while in North Dakota they failed to muster enough votes to permit an entrance into the general election.

In Massachusetts Charles S. Bird who has been progressive goat since 1912 has refused to make the race for governor and a general breakdown of the party is in evidence.

These circumstances are convincing proof that the democratic party is up against a real struggle, in which it will not be favored by a destructive split in the republican party.

If the house of representatives is captured by the opposition or if the democratic majority is reduced to a minimum it would be a serious blow to the efficiency of the administration and would presage unfavorable results in 1916.

In the meantime it should be recalled that the democratic party has never polled a majority of the votes cast in this country since 1892 and that in the last election the vote of Taft and Roosevelt combined was 1,000,000 more than that of President Wilson.

Overconfidence and consequent laziness have been the afflicting characteristics of the democratic party and have lost it many a campaign in which it possessed a tactical advantage.

Even now we hear people some of them high in the party's councils banking on the president's popularity to pull a democratic congress through in safety and while this may be a delightfully comfortable and optimistic view to take of the situation it is likely to lead to an apathy and an indifference that may well bring about disaster.

The democratic party has excellent material with which to go before the country, but this is an age when people are inclined to help only those who help themselves and the voters are not going to investigate on their own account to any great extent. If the democratic party places its material before the country the country will doubtless look with favor upon the success accomplished and will be inspired by the psychology of positive effort but if a listless attitude is adopted the party has everything to fear.

So far the democratic leaders have not shown the interest in this campaign that they ought and neither have the rank and file of democrats exhibited a keen realization of the conditions surrounding it.

It is high time that more activity be manifest. This administration is well worth saving, not only for partisan purposes, but for the benefit of the country as well.—Houston Chronicle.

AMERICA'S BIG CHANCE

There's billions in it for the United States!

Billions in what?

Billions in the war! Billions of dollars!

It is only a question of how soon the United States sees it.

It is only a question of how soon the United States responds to the needs of a world suddenly cut off from goods for which it pays Europe billions of dollars every year.

What has become of the ships that det every ocean laden with goods marked "Made in Germany?"

Swept from the sea? Every one of them tied up at docks in some neutral port or in some home port. Thousands of German factories have shut down for the workers to go to war or because the German commercial ships dare not traverse the ocean. These factories have supplied the Orient, the islands of the sea, South America, Central America, yes and the United States too with their products.

What factories will take their place? American factories, folks, if we are really up to snuff!

If Germany sets free her commercial fleet by whipping the everlasting pigeon out of England's fleet, who then will pick up the immense shipping business of England? Not Germany because her workers will be too busy fighting and producing munitions of war and food for their armies and their people at home.

If Germany wins at sea France will be bottled up. Who is going to get France's big foreign trade?

And so with the lesser foreign trade of Austria and Russia and the Balkan countries and some of the other little bottled up states.

The possibilities for the United States increasing its foreign trade enormously at the expense of Europe, are great. Only quick action is needed.

Germany's exports which are mostly manufactured articles amounted last year to approximately two billion dollars. How's that for a nice juicy watermelon for the United States to grab off?

Germany exported one hundred and seventy-one million dollars worth of stuff to the United States last year or about that. Why can't we in America make that stuff if we can't buy it from Germany? Of course we can and hand the larger part of that money back to American workmen.

Great Britain—that is England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales—exported two billion two hundred and fifty million dollars worth of goods last year. Even if England wins the big naval rough and tumble with Germany she'll be too busy to take care of that fine export plum of hers in its entirety. Can't we take a big bite out of it?

France's yearly exports amounted to about a billion and a quarter. It's pretty dainty stuff generally speaking which France exports but don't tell us American can't make dainty stuff itself. Maybe our personal palate isn't very refined but California champagne tastes as good to us any old time as French champagne.

Somebody's got to get all this trade that Europe has just thrown over its shoulders. The main thing is for the United States to get busy right away quick or sooner and go after it with both hands and two feet!—Austin Tribune.

THIRTEENTH STREET CAR SWITCH BEING MOVED

The street car company is planning to move its Thirteenth street switch from the present location near the school house to the corner of Thirteenth and Travis. It is believed that the change will make for much more regular schedules as at present it is very seldom that the inbound car does not have to wait at this switch. From the switch downtown and return is twenty-nine blocks which is hard to make in twelve minutes when the traffic is at all heavy, and it is believed the change will be much more satisfactory. At present the switch is broken and the cars pass each other at the corner of Thirteenth and Lamar.

AMERICANS MAY NOW LEAVE GERMAN EMPIRE

Will be Taken Out as Rapidly as Train Service is Restored Says Gerard

By Associated Press.
Washington, Aug. 15.—Americans now may leave Germany as rapidly as the train service is restored. Ambassador Gerard at Berlin reported to the state department via Copenhagen today by cable.

The cable was very brief, giving no details and was confined to the announcement that Americans might leave as fast as train service was restored. Officials assumed that it signalized the completion of the mobilization of the German army, as previous official advices had stated that Americans were being detained not by order of the Berlin government, but only because all the transportation facilities in the empire were requisitioned for transportation of troops. Official advices that thousands of Americans throughout the empire, many of them at resorts and baths in the south now were free to return, was received with gratification by officials and the news was given to anxious inquirers who have been besieging the state department for the relief of their countrymen.

GERMAN PROCLAMATION AS TO CONTRABAND OF WAR

By Associated Press
Washington, Aug. 15.—The state department today made public the German proclamation as to contraband of war. The list corresponds as regards absolute contrabands to the commodities set forth in the British declaration. As regards both absolute and conditional contrabands, Germany gives notice she will apply the provisions of the declaration of London, provided both the belligerents do not disregard them. The declaration of the other belligerents regarding contrabands have not been received, but it is assumed they will in the main follow those of England and Germany. Regarding the seizure of vessels and cargoes, Solicitor General Johnson of the state department in a statement, says:

"Vessels flying the flag of one of the belligerents are subject to seizure and confiscation by the enemy; contraband on board such vessels is of course subject to confiscation, though the property of a neutral." The message from the German government, owing to error in transmission is somewhat obscure, but it is assumed to coincide with the English declaration.

U. S. WILL CONSIDER RELIEF SHIPS NEUTRAL

By Associated Press.
Washington, Aug. 15.—The United States government has notified the powers of Europe that it will regard as neutral "ships chartered for the sole purpose of repatriating American citizens stranded in Europe." The government has asked the belligerent governments for a declaration on the subject. The announcement follows:

"The state department has issued instructions to its diplomatic representatives in Europe to notify the different governments to which they are credited that this government will regard ships chartered for the sole purpose of repatriating its citizens stranded in Europe as neutral, under the principles of international law and as coming within the meaning of Article 4 of The Hague convention in 1907 having to do with the rights of capture in naval warfare of neutralized vessels that are charged with a philanthropic mission. The different European governments have been asked for declarations to this effect."

OFFICIAL COMMUNICATION BRITISH PRESS BUREAU

By Associated Press
London, Aug. 15.—The British official press bureau in its communication today says:

"The German offensive is for the moment arrested in upper Alsace, and have made progress on that side. There are indications that the French French troops are advancing into the high Alsatain valleys of the Vosges mountains. Since their occupation of the Saales region, in German territory on the frontier of Alsace, which was announced yesterday the French troops have entered the town of Sanles itself, driving out the German troops in the Woevre district in the department of the Meuse. The French today fired at and brought down a hostile aeroplane which was flying at a height of 1000 yards. The two German officers occupying the flying machine were taken prisoners. In the same district a battalion of French light artillery put to flight a battalion of German Landwehr, taking forty prisoners. The Belgian cavalry continues successful in the neighborhood of Hasselt."

About 5:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon a fire alarm was turned in and the fire department responded with characteristic promptness, chasing up to Seventh and Burnett streets and finding no flames on which to turn the hose, came to the conclusion that it was Eleventh street. Straightway the department got into action and was soon at Eleventh only to find the dash in vain, for no sign of fire was in sight. They returned to the fire station. It is not known who turned in the false alarm.

FOUR HURT IN EXPLOSION OF GAS AT MARKHAM

By Associated Press.
Bay City, Texas, Aug. 15.—A gas explosion caused by lighting a cigarette, occurred here today at the Markham oil field and four men were painfully burned about the arms and face. The men were workmen at the Pate well, which had been blown out. The four men were brought here for hospital treatment, one being sent to the hospital in a serious condition.

MONROE DOCTRINE KEEPS U. S. OUT OF FIGHT

Roosevelt Says Observance of Great Principle Alone Keeps America at Peace

By Associated Press.
Hartford, Conn., Aug. 15.—Nearly half of the political speech Col. Theodore Roosevelt delivered tonight before the Progressive state convention here was devoted to a discussion of the cataclysm that has engulfed Europe in war. If the Monroe doctrine had not been steadfastly maintained, he said, the United States in all probability would have been drawn into the struggle.

"Africa, south of the Equator," he said "is being drawn into the fight although without any interest in it. We would have been drawn in the same way if it had not been for observance of the great principle, the Monroe doctrine contains; the principle that this continent shall not be treated as a place for territorial aggradizement for old world powers."

ACTION UPON BANK LAW AMENDMENT IS DELAYED

By Associated Press
Washington, Aug. 15—An effort to remove limitations imposed by the federal reserve act on the discounting by banks of acceptance based on import and export business was delayed in the House today by Representative Wingo of Arkansas who declared the measure should be considered by the banking and currency committee. The bill probably will be put through early next week. Under the federal reserve act, member banks may rediscount with the federal reserve banks acceptance, based on the exportation and importation of goods having less than three months to run, provided the amount of such rediscounts at that time shall exceed one-half of the capital and surplus of the discounting banks. Member banks may discount for customers similar acceptance up to six months up to the one-half of their capital and surplus. The Glass bill authorizes the federal reserve board in its discretion to remove the limitations as to amounts of acceptance to be rediscount and would allow reserve banks to rediscount six months acceptances.

By Associated Press
London, Aug. 15.—The correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph company in Rome says a message from Berlin asserts that Germany has sent to France and Belgium, through neutral powers a note stating that reports received from the German army leave no doubt that France and Belgium have organized a popular war against Germany and that private citizens not wearing uniforms are firing on German troops. Germany gives notice that from today every Belgian or French private citizen who fires on German troops or tries to interfere with communication of the arms of invasion and the guard or to interfere in any way with the advance of the German army, will be shot. The note adds that if the war thus assumes a brutal character it will be the fault of France and not of Germany.

Cotton is reported to be opening in some fields and the season's first bale is xpected to appear in the local market this week. The first bale has already come in at Henrietta. While nothing has yet been done toward raising a bonus for the first bale it is taken for granted that such a premium will be paid. In order to avoid confusion the Times suggests that farmers competing for the first bale prize drive their cotton to the city hall and register with Acting Secretary Thomas of the Chamber of Commerce. To the Chamber of Commerce and the Merchants Association it is suggested that the money for the premium be subscribed and collected before the cotton is brought in.

HISTORY OF THE CABLE BETWEEN U. S. AND EUROPE

By Associated Press

Then

Fifty six years ago today the world s first submarine cable message flashed under the Atlantic Ocean from England to the United States The event signalled the opening of the Atlantic Cable The historic message which shot under the seas from Queen Victoria of England to President Buchanan of the United States was a message of courtesy and friendship The president replied in part May the Atlantic telegraph prove to be a bond of perpetual peace and friendship between the nations and an instrument designed by Divine Providence to diffuse religion civilization liberty and law throughout the world The following day was given up to celebration in the two countries In the United States the cities lying east of the Mississippi celebrated with the firing of guns and the ringing of bells In New York the citizens were awakened early in the morning by a cannon salute of 100 guns The salute was repeated at noon Church dignatories met and held religious services the populace paraded with bands of music while all the church bells rang continuously The buildings were decorated some having banners picturing the Queen and the President grasping hands over the legend reciprocity The flags of the two nations were entwined over their heads That night the city was brilliantly illuminated

Now

Today there are about 280 000 miles of cable submerged in the oceans gulfs and estuaries of the world These are divided into over 2500 cable systems, thirteen of which are owned by the United States government More than three score of these systems connect with the United States and Europe and are carrying more than 25,000 000 words between England and America every year They are carrying the news of the world almost as soon as events occur and are conveying business and social messages between the nations that are bound by its ties in a bond of friendship that has not been disturbed by war since the first message was dispatched Today certain messages can be despatched to England from New York at the rate of a few cents a word a half century ago messages cost at the rate of twenty words for $100 These messages travel at a marvelous rate Recently a test of the time required to send a commercial message of nine words around the world made a record of 16 1 2 minutes It traveled a distance of 28,613 miles and was relayed sixteen times At the opening of the Pacific cable in 1900 President Roosevelt sent a message around the world in 9 1 2 minutes But unlike the test of commercial message it had the royal right of way and the operators at relay stations had been forewarned not to delay its despatch

AUSTRALIANS WINNERS OF DAVIS TENNIS CUP

After 12 Months Stay In U S Tennis Trophy Goes To Austrian Team

By Associated Press

Forest Hill, N Y August 15—After a twelve months' stay in the United States the Davis cup carrying with it the world s tennis team championship has resumed international travel Norman E Brooks, captain of the Australian team defeated R Norris Williams Americas second ranking player 6 1 6-2 8 10 and 6 3 The victory added to those of Wilding over Williams Thursday and Brooks and Wilding over McLoughlin and Rundy in the doubles yesterday gave Australia three out of five matches

Fifteen thousand spectators tried to cheer Williams and as a result caused one of the most ludicrous exhibitions ever witnessed in an amateur sporting event in this country All through the third set every brilliant stroke by Williams was cheered until the uproar could be heard far across Long Island plains Brooks unable to handle Williams service and returns several times and put his hands over his ears When Williams won the set and the crowd really broke loose The Australian threw down his racket and setting on the sand box held his head in his hands He eventually walked into the club house He appeared to regain his poise when upon returning he was given great applause

The only satisfaction Americans gained from the days play was the manner in which the national champion McLoughlin pushed Wilding as well as Brooks off the world s championship singles pedestal Having defeated Brooks in straight sets Thursday McLoughlin tore into Wilding and gave the Australian a crushing defeat Wilding was run off his feet or left standing flat footed by the lightning strokes of his opponent The score was 6 2 6 3 2 6 0 2

PRESIDENT DISAPPROVES LOANS TO BELLIGERENTS

By Associated Press

Washington Aug 15—President Wilson today formally disapproved the plan of American bankers to make loans in the United States for the benefit of belligerent countries in Europe but expressed no objection to loans made to neutral countries

Secretary Bryan announced that Switzerland had made formal inquiry as to the attitude of the United States toward the floating of a loan for her and the statement with reference to neutral countries was intended to cover the inquiry today by the Swiss consul

The following pronouncement of policy was issued by Secretary Bryan today at the direction of President Wilson

Inquiry having been made as to the attitude of this government in case American bankers are asked to make loans to foreign governments in Europe the following announcement is made

There is no reason why loans should not be made to the governments of neutral nations but in the judgment of this government loans by American bankers to any foreign nation which is at war is inconsistent with the true spirit of neutrality

The principle represents an advanced attitude on the part of the United States on a much mooted question Hitherto loans have been floated in the United States as well as other neutral countries for the benefits of belligerents International authorities have agreed that while the loaning of money is forbidden to a neutral country subjects might engage in the practice

PLAN TO STRAIGHTEN OUT MOOSE LODGE FINANCES

Loan Proposed by Supreme Lodge to Place Finances on a Sound Basis

W A McDaniels district state deputy of the Loyal Order of Moose is here from Dallas for several days in the interests of the local lodge and to try and arrange for the payments of the indebtedness now held by various persons against the lodge At a meeting of the lodge Friday night Mr McDaniels outlined a plan submitted by the supreme lodge and which received the unanimous approval and support of the large number of members who were present

The plan calls for the suspension of sick benefits and free medical attention for members until the first of January and for a slight increase in the monthly dues and in each of these the members concurred most heartily For some time the lodge has been known to be in straightened financial circumstances by reason of extensive investments in lodge furniture and equipment made at a time when the membership was increasing very rapidly and to other incidents which were unavoidable This condition Mr McDaniel proposes to relieve by making a loan of sufficient funds to liquidate the indebtedness and thus place the lodge on a sound financial basis All that he asks is that the members of the local lodge display sufficient interest in the work of the order to indicate that the lodge in the future will be able to take care of its own liabilities and the enthusiasm shown at the meeting Friday night more than justified Mr McDaniels and the local officers in going ahead with the plan

The lodge will hold another meeting this afternoon at 3 o clock at which the final action will be taken and it is especially urged that every one who has been a member or who is now a member be present

THE TREY OF HEARTS

WE CATER

To the American woman realizing that her wants are the most discriminating and that she is the exchequer of the American home. She is the shrewdest buyer, as well as the best judge of service in the world. Probably she should not have the ballot because she might want to put a hand-embroidered ruffle around it, perfume it with Lundborg's Ocean Spray and come around to the polls and change it several times, but when we say service we know that she expects nothing less than that word means. Our drug store service comes from years in the school of experience. We have profited well by the mistakes of others who have thought that any kind of service would do. The cost of the goods, the cost of doing business are of great importance, but the burning question we ask ourselves every day in the year is "ARE WE GIVING SATISFACTION?"

PAVLOWA The World's Premier Danseuse Endorses Columbia Dance Records

Since I have been in your country I have been amazed to see the popularity of the talking machine record used with the dance. This so excited my curiosity that I have made it a great study and think it is due you to say that Columbia instruments and Columbia dance records over all others have my unqualified endorsement. I use your Grafonola and dance records in my rehearsals with complete satisfaction and find your dance records truly represent the very spirit of the dance. Their tempo, rythm, clarity and musical qualities simply charm me.

I am convinced that all who dance can get great satisfaction from the use of your Grafonolas and records.

Sincerely yours, ANNA PAVLOWA.

BACHELOR GIRLS HONOR MISS KERR WITH SHOWER

A most delightful pre-nuptial affair, one among several which marked the coming of marriage of Miss Jessie Kerr to John C. Pressley, was the miscellaneous shower Thursday evening given by the Bachelor Girls Club of which Miss Kerr is president. The affair took place at the home of Mrs. Phil Kerr, which was charmingly decorated for the occasion, the music room, library and dining room forming the reception suite. The club colors, pink and green were predominant in the decorations of ferns, potted plants and cut flowers, pink carnations, the club flowers The dining table presented a very pleasing appearance, the polished wood being over laid with a Cluny lace cloth, centered with a cut glass vase filled with carnations. Shaded lights in pink and green added to the general effect and the chandeliers were also hung with hearts and ribbon streamers leading to the four corners of the room. Mrs. Phil Kerr received the guests at the door and when all were assembled the honoree was sent for, ostensibly to settle an argument, the affair being all a surprise to her. As she entered the door Miss Mabel Winfrey, her life long friend, pulled a ribbon concealed behind the door and there was precipitated on the head of the surprised bride-elect a shower of pink and green hearts. She was then presented with an immense cluster of pink carnations. Finally when the excitement had somewhat subsided each guest was given a ribbon and instructed to follow it to the end. This guest caused much merriment as each one, with the exception of the honoree found only a stick of candy After some little time filled with difficulties, Miss Kerr reached the end of her ribbon and discovered, much to her surprise, a tiny red wagon bedecked with crepe paper and ribbon, filled with many beautiful and useful gifts, especially fitted for a bride. After each parcel had been opened and admired by all, delicious ice cream and cake was served, the club colors being again featured in the refreshment course. Throughout the evening musical selections, both vocal and instrumental were furnished by the club members. Those present on this delightful occasion were: Misses Anna and Craul Pressley, Kathrine Brothers, Childers, Wilson, McInnis, Lois Brothers, Morse, Rainey, Millican, Winfrey, Brown, Carlyle, Hursh, Carrie Kerr, Ethel Rainey, Mary Meredith, Mesdames McInnis, Harte, Kerr, Phil Kerr, Messrs. Kerr and Pressley and the honoree, Miss Jessie Kerr.

MISS HELEN SNIDER'S NINTH BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED FRIDAY

Honoring the ninth birthday of her little daughter, Mrs. C. W. Snider entertained Friday evening with a "Sunbonnet Girl" party. The wide, grassy lawn and the spacious veranda made a most charming out of door playroom for the little girls who assembled to wish Helen "many happy returns of the day" and joining with their wishes many pretty gifts in honor of her birthday anniversary. Each guest was presented with a clay pipe and for some time the novel and interesting occupation of blowing soap bubbles engaged the attention of all A basket filled with gay paper bonnets was passed and when the bonnets were donned the children became "sunbonnet girls," quite in keeping with the motif of the party. Kodaw pictures were taken of the merry group in their sunbonnets. After numerous games had been played the immense pink white birthday cake was brought out and placed on a table on the lawn. Nine tiny candles in pink and white were burning brightly around the edge while in the center stood a tiny pink sunbonnet girl. The sunbonnet idea was featured also in the dainty plates on which the refreshments were served and in the gay paper napkins. The cutting of each slice of the birthday cake was accompanied by a birthday wish for the little hostess. The usual favors were sought eagerly after and it was found that Ruth Nolen cut the dime, Josephine Posey the button, Rosella Williams the penny, Rhea Barnard the thimble, and Francis Cullian the "nigger baby." The guests at this delightful children's party included: Misses Rose Stampfli, Margaret Cousins, Leona Maricle, Judith Sherrod, Ida Baggett, Eleanor Allen, Audrey Ferguson, Ella Merle Mathis, Ruth and Dorothy Nolen, Beulah Gardner, Alice Jenne, Lucille Smith, Louise Hamlin, Francis Cullinan, Mary and Elizabeth Brown, Helen Nunn, Margaret Fore, Retta Barnard, Elizabeth Greenwood, Kathleen Lynch, Mary Blair, Bernice Gohlke, Edmontine Friberg, Madeline Thomas, Roselia Williams, Posey Miller, Josephine Posey

KITCHEN SHOWER FOR MISS JESSIE KERR FRIDAY

Honoring Miss Jessie Kerr, one of this months' charming brides-elect, the Ladies Aid of the Central Presbyterian Church entertained with a kitchen shower Friday evening. The affair was in the nature of a complete surprise to the honoree, the party meeting at the home of Mrs. Phil Kerr and going from there to the home of Mrs. A. F. Kerr. With the pans and other kitchen utensils with which they were laden the party made music on the way over, and serenaded Miss Kerr and Mr. Pressley for some time, An informal evening, full of jollity and mirth was spent and refreshments were served. This was one of several affairs in Miss Kerr's honor. Those present were: Messrs and Mesdames A F. Kerr, Phil Kerr, H. C. Dakan, J. Milton Erwin, Meredith. Mesdames Oldham, Fain, White, Pitman, Childers, Ashmore, Gardner, Jenne, Hartsook Gibson McInnis, Messrs. Hail and Hursh, Misses Clara Carlyle, Lillian Fain, Carrie Kerr and the honoree, Miss Kerr and Mr. Pressley.

MRS. W. M. WEST HOSTESS TO THE MODERN CROCHET CLUB

The Modern Crochet Club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. W. M. West, the meeting being postponed from Wednesday the regular day, on account of the rain. The usual program of crocheting was carried out and a number of guests had been invited by the hostess to participate in the good time which is to be expected at all of the club meetings. Iced lemonade was served throughout the afternoon and refreshments of ice cream and cake were enjoyed. A contest offered a diversion for some time, Mrs Boone carrying off the trophy, a piece of crochet. The guests were: Mesdames Marquande, Dilliard, Thompson, Barclay, Bates, Craig, Doke, Ham, Seeley, Misses Bonnie Higgins of Hico and Ethel Morse of Archer City. The club members were: Mesdames Brooks, Scott, Uhrich, Colboth, McConkey, Boone, Reed, Misses Elizabeth Forsch and Daisy Brooks.

THURSDAY SEWING CIRCLE WITH MRS. C. B. MONTGOMERY

The regular meeting this week of the Thursday Sewing Circle found a large number of the members out of town, only four members being present, Mrs. C. B. Montgomery was hostess of the club and the afternoon was spent in the usual manner with crocheting and needlework. Those present were: Mrs. J. M. Bell, Mrs. M. J. Gardner, Miss Rhea Gardner and the hostess.

Mrs. Frank Kell returned yesterday to Colorado after spending a week here The Kell family will probably remain in Colorado a month yet.

Mrs. Lillie Grey left Friday for Corpus Christi for a short pleasure trip.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER FOR BRIDE-ELECT WEDNESDAY

Wednesday evening Miss Bess Ischar was honoree at a surprise miscellaneous shower, honoring her approaching marriage to J. C. Wheeler of Chickasha, Okla., which has been announced to take place Sunday, August 16. All knowledge of the affair had been carefully kept from the honoree, who was the guest of Mrs D. A. Wilcoxson at supper. During her absence the guests gathered at the home of Mrs. W. P. Parker, sister of the bride elect, to await her home coming. On the arrival of Miss Ischar and Mrs. Wilcoxson they were ushered into the darkened dining room and as the honoree turned on the lights the surprise was revealed, the room being filled with guests. The bride-to-be was then blindfolded and was called upon to guess the contents of each of the dainty tissue paper wrapped and ribbon tied bundles. The shower was found to contain a host of dainty gifts in silver, linen and cut glass calculated to fill the heart of any bride with pride. After each of the tokens had been duly admired a social time was enjoyed and delicious fruit punch was served. Later in the evening, Mrs. Parker, assisted by Mrs Cabiness and Mrs. Wilcoxson, served pineapple sherbet and pineapple cream cake to the following: Misses Hortense Cabiness, Ethel and Maggie Brown, Bonnie Zetsche, Gladys Zetsche, Ethel and Myrtle Jackson, Maude Wheeler, Mims Knight, Minnie Barnes, Anna Johnson, Kate Weddle, Ona Johnson, Mesdames E. A. Ischar, Wilcoxson, Parker, Cabiness, W. P. Parker, J. W. Pond, J. Schaefer, Lightfoot, Dunaway, Howard, J H. Leach of Gainesville.

ROWENA CIRCLE MEETING WEDNESDAY WITH MRS. JENNE

The Rowena Circle held one of the best and most profitable meetings of the year from every standpoint Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Jenne as hostess at her home. 1913 Tenth street The bad weather did not seem to interfere to any degree with either the intrest or attendance. The Circle took up the first chapter of Ivanhoe for the afternoon's study and will continue the book, taking one chapter at each meeting As the order is founded on Ivanhoe this makes a very interesting course of study for the Circle and one which will prove of unlimited benefit After the program and business of the afternoon had been disposed of, the hostess served a delightful three course luncheon and the Circle had as special guests for this interesting part of the meeting, Mr. South, state manager for the B. of A Y., Mr. Sites of Hobart, Okla., and Mr Jenne. When time came for adjournment all present unanimously decided that this was the very best meeting which it had been the Circle's fortune to enjoy. The members present included: Mesdames Earl Richardson, Zetzsche, Robertson, Hallowitz South, Jenne and Miss Ora Carlton. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Louis Hallowitz.

METHODIST PASTOR GIVEN PLEASANT SURPRISE TUESDAY

The members and friends of the First Methodist Church worked a very pleasant surprise on the pastor's family on the evening of August 11 which happened to be Rev. Smith's birthday. The pastor and family were invited out to supper and while they were innocently eating fried chicken at the home of Mrs. George Corkhill the people took possession of their home on Seventh street When the crowd was all well assembled Rev. Smith was called presumably to perform a wedding service for some innocent couple and on entering his home in response to the call found the house full of folks and the dining room table loaded with good things to eat after the fashion of the old time pound party except that instead of pounds there were sacks of sugar, flour and other substantials It so happened also that the good women had brought an abundant supply of cake and a big tub of ice cream and at the proper hour all were served. The evening passed pleasantly and the pastor was very happily reminded of his birthday anniversary. There was a large number assembled and the crowd was in a jolly mood. Besides being a very practical expression of good will and good wishes it was also a very pleasant way to treat a new pastor and made the ties of friendship closer.

MISSIONARY MEETING AND PICNIC SUPPER AT M. E. CHURCH

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the First M. E. Church held a very pleasant and profitable business and social session at the church Monday afternoon. The members met at 4:30 for the business session and program and later the men came and all united in a picnic supper. There were about forty present and the evening was spent in social visiting and in planning future activities. This is a growing organization of the church and such occasions as this is productive of great good to those participating.

$410 ALREADY FROM ONE ACRE OF TOMATOES

Burkburnett Star.

J. L. Greathouse who owns four or five hundred acres of land on the river five miles east of town is demonstrating that truck farming can be made profitable in this county.

He raised one acre of tomatoes this season from which he reports sales to the amount of $410 to date with a good deal of the crop yet to gather. All the tomatoes were sold to local dealers He also raised one acre of melons and reports the yield very satisfactory. He says he has been experimenting with celery and egg plants and has quite a lot of vegetables growing this year. He has some Elberta peach trees that are bearing splendidly, but does not raise them for the market to any great extent.

Mr. Greathouse won a number of prizes offered for farm products at the Burkburnett Carnival last year and says he will be on hand this season to carry away another lot of premiums.

BETTER CATTLE IN PACIFIC NORTHWEST HILL'S PLAN

London, Aug. 15—For the purpose of improving the breed of cattle in the Pacific Northwest some important purchases of English cattle have been made here for James J Hill One shipment is of fifty dairy shorthorn bulls, which will be given away to as many counties in that section of the country. Each one of these bulls is born of a cow with a milk record of 10,000 pounds or more the year.'

Besides the gift of these blooded animals to the farmers of the Northwest, a herd of ten cows and a bull of South Devons, the first to be imported to America, will be sent to Hill's Minnesota farm, as well as two prize winning dairy shorthorns to his North Dakota farm.

The purchases were made by Prof Thomas Shaw, the well known expert of Minnesota. According to Eugene Grubb, United States live stock commissioner, now in England, this is the most important shipment of blooded cattle ever made to American from England, and will mean a great improvement in breed in th e Northwest, both for milk and beef purposes.

BLIND BOYS IN BOAT RACE, PROVE EXPERT AS OARSMEN

Worcester, England, Aug. 15.—Four blind schoolboys, pulling with a clean, steady stroke recently won a race here on the Severn against a crew of four blind men. The victors belonged to the Worcester College for the Blind, and their rivals were former pupils. Out of this has resulted a rowing boom at the school, and there "fours" are now in training out of the thirty boys. They hope to enter next season for the public school cup at the Molesey Regetta.

The boys were trained by their head master, G C. Brown, who, having eyes, acted as coxwain

'The beginning was the hardest part," says Mr. Brown. "First, they had to feel all over the boat and the oars, while I explained things to them. We trained in a 'tub' with outriggers and fixed seats. But once they learned the feeling of the water, they picked up the stroke easily. Their keen sense of hearing and the movement of the boat enables them to keep perfect time."

No form of athletics introduced at the school has been taken up eagerly by the boys as rowing.

FAVORS SHOW MILITARY IN COURTS OF BAVARIA

Lieutenant Who Attacked Woman Is Acquitted and She Is Forced To Pay Fine

By Associated Press.

Munich, Aug 15—A civil court proceeding, growing indirectly out of a trial by court martial has directed attention to an extraordinary case showing once more the relations existing between military persons and civilians The case in question is some months old, but it escaped notice at the time it occurred The defendant before the court martial was a Lieutenant Seider of the garrison in Ingolstadt The facts as brought out on trial were these

Lieutenant Seider s man servant had a quarrel with the domestic servant of the landlord of the house in which the lieutenant and his wife had an apartment, in the course of which the maid declared that "the lieutenants are a dirty pack who don't clean up their mess They are a brood" The lieutenant's wife sent for her husband This female says we are a brood ' she said, pointing to the maid The lieutenant thereupon struck the girl twice with his saber.

You are acting like a washerwoman to mix up in such a quarrel," said the wife of the landlord, who had seen the occurrence 'You ought to be ashamed as an officer to strike a woman with your sword."

The lieutenant struck the woman in the face with his hand, she raised a broom against him and he attacked her with his sword, cutting both her hands

The court martial found Seider guilty and sentenced him to forty five days imprisonment in a fortress The superior military court at Muremberg, to which the lieuenant appealed, acquitted him ,on the ground that he had acted in self defense Actions for insult against the two women resulted in a fine of $12 for the wife of the landlord and $2 50 for the maid Their appeals were dismissed

METHODISTS IN ENGLAND PLANNING FOR REVIVAL

Church Declared To Be Losing Ground and Enthusiasm Seems Lacking

London, Aug 15—Many prominent Methodists made a plea at the annual Wesleyan Conference held at Leeds for a revival in the Methodist Church The need for such an effort it was stated was acknowledged on every side All the churches reported a falling away in membership and a lack of enthusiasm of those who remained in outward connection with the church.

Methodist prayer meetings, said the Rev S F Collier, former president of the conference, had suffered terribly by getting into routine What they needed today was the note triumphant. While the rest of the world had been raising the standard they of the church had been lowering it 'it is bad form to be enthusiastic in the pulpit nowadays It is bad form to be enthusiastic anywhere about religion. I suppose in some pulpits if I cultivated a doleful voice, a heavy manner I should be looked upon as a scholar and rank above an evangelist"

'I wonder sometimes if we are not becoming too respectable," said Sir John Barnsley in discussing the matter 'The Methodist Church used to be the church of the poor It has lost that inheritance and has handed over to others the work of redeeming the common people"

EXTEND SCOPE OF AMERICAN CHURCH HOSPITAL IN TOKIO

Tokio, Aug 15—Great interest has been caused by the announcement that the American Episcopal Mission Hospital at Tokio, known as St Luke's will soon be extended into a modern international institution Already a large sum of money has been contributed in the United States for this purpose, an American council has been formed, with headquarters at New York and an American woman's auxiliary board will help make the project successful The latest step is the organization of a Japanese council, with Premier Count Okuma as president, which promises to furnish land for the hospital

The institution was founded fourteen years ago by Dr Rudolf B Tuesler, who came from Richmond, Va., as a missionary doctor It is now an institution of eighty beds with a staff of three foreign and ten Japanese doctors, a nurses' training school with forty pupils and a medical society of about fifty Japanese members. The professors of the medical department of the Imperial University are consultants to the hospital

Foreigners throughout Japan as well as members of the embassies and legations avail themselves of the hospital

The project is to erect a new institution on the pavilion plan at a total estimated cost of $485,000.

ICELAND'S INDEPENDENCE BELIEVED TO BE BREWING

National Flag Has Been Designed and Will Be Flown—Denmark Is Divided

Copenhagen, Aug 15—A band of Icelandic patriots have designated a national flag which they propose to fly, not only over Iceland, but on all vessels registered in that country If they had been content to make their flag a strictly local affair, for which permission had already been granted by the Danish King, all would have been well But the Danish Parliament has now taken up the question of the marine flag on account of the activities of the Icelandic 'Independence' party

The people of Denmark are of a divided opinion as to Iceland Some feel that the Icelanders are acting in a very ungrateful way in view of past favors, and others that to give Iceland its freedom would rid the country of a source of useless expense

Iceland's new flag is of a navy blue field, marked yith a white cross whose arms extend to the four sides, and a cardinal red cross of half the size set within the white

It was not until after the state council approved the Icelandic home flag, following negotiations between the Icelandic minister and the Danish prime minister that the agitation was taken up by the patriots for its use as a commercial and marine emblem The Icelanders cannot have their new colors recognized by foreign powers as a national flag without the consent of the Danish parliament.

Sleeveless Basques Taffeta Fashion For Late Summer

New York, Aug. 15.—The magic name of Newport brings forth visions of society's elite enjoying the pleasures of the ocean breezes and the beach in bathing suits much better suited to the drawing room, except for their length, than to the briny deep. But for all these visions, practical or impractical Newport is the place to find the ultra smart in summer clothes.

At Bailey's Beach, in the morning, may be seen stunning tailored and outing clothes, and wraps. All white is used a great deal, and yellow in every known shade of the dyer's art. Sleeveless basques in yellow taffeta are worn over white long sleeved guimpes of net or tulle.

My illustration shows a dress of this type. In yellow taffeta and creamy figured chiffon, it is charming in the extreme. The short over-waist is of taffeta, and buttons primly down the front with buttons covered with the yellow taffeta. The guimpe or under bodice is of printed chiffon, with long sleeves which cover the wrist. Around the waist the wide girdle of chiffon ties in a fluffy bow at the back, dropping at a rather low waist line. The skirt with its double tunics, cutaway in the front is smart and up to date. The upper tunic is of the yellow taffeta, while the lower tunic is of the printed chiffon.

Some bodices are all white tulle or net with necks cut low in the front with a sailor collar and high crushed girdles of silk to match the color of the skirt.

The style of waists which have sash ends attached are very much the rage, as well as the wide vogue for sashes or girdles, which are crushed over the hips and tie in the back. These are worn with skirts having the long tunics or double skirts.

For evening wear black tulle over satin is used extensively. The satin is usually of black or of white and sometimes colored. A bit of blue or yellow is often used at the belt to give the desired color touch.

Dancing dresses are made of white tulle with pleated ruffle and tunics. Roman striped girdles in light colors, such as light blue, green and pink are worn with these dresses. They are tied deep over the hips, with a wraith like flowing tunic below. These dresses are all very simple, mostly made of some gauzy fabric like chiffon, tulle, net, or organdy, and no lace. Very large flowers are placed at the belt, sometimes being the only color on the costume.

Skirts of the crinoline influence are trimmed with ruffles of lace and have basques of colored taffeta. What would our great grandmothers say to such a combination?

Capes of every description are used and are made of all sorts of materials from linen to broadcloth and faille silk. These are sometimes lined and sometimes not, often finished merely with a binding of braid in black or the same color as the cape. The smartest ones are short in front and long in the back with deep collars. Corduroy and velvet are also used for these capes and for other wraps this summer. They sound hot, but in reality are light in weight and soft and supple in their texture.

The striking cape suit in my illustration is made of serge and voile. The cape is made with a vest having long sleeves. On to this vest is attached the rippling cape. Three large onyx buttons fasten the vest. The collar, cuffs and lining of the cape are of white charmeuse. The skirt is made with a fitted yoke of theserge and the long pleated lower section of pleated blue voile which has a pin stripe of white. All in all the costume is a stunning example of the tailored cape suit.

Negligees follow the costume style closely and are made with cape and basque effects. The long lose line of the moyen age styles are distinctly suited to the loose comfort of these garments. Another style well suited to the young woman fond of ultra effects, even in the privacy of her bedroom, is the Turkish trouser negligee. These are made of crepe de chine or heavy China silk and closely resemble the pajama.

Petticoats are coming to their own again, and are being made with deeper flounces and somewhat wider at the hem. The summer tubbable petticoats are made of nainsook and longcloth with a single flounce of embroidery, with so little fulness in it, that it seems no fuller than the skirt. A petticoat of material resembling pique, but not quite as heavy, with a plain scalloped edge is a practical petticoat for summer wear.

Underwear is being made of fine nainsook, longcloth and crepe, but trimmed very little. Crepe de chine is a practical material for underwear, though a trifle more expensive than the French batiste whose soft, fine qualities are so alluring to the eye.

Forting is used a great deal for trimming lingerie and crocheted or embroidery beadings are extensively used to join seams.

These garments may all be plainer but that does not mean that they may not have as great an amount of hand work upon them, in the rolling of the seams, the whipping on of the ruffles and in the tiny hand run tucks. Simplicity usually means an extravagance in hand work.

The corsets are showing a tendency toward a higher bust, but low busted models are preferred for the slim figure. They are made soft and flexible to conform with the ruge for natural lines. Those that lace in front are particularly popular and practical.

The brassieres are made in a great variety of styles and materials to suit the individual needs. They have become a necessity in the wardrobe of every woman, whether of large or small proportions.

BUSY SEASON AHEAD FOR GLASS FACTORIES

War Will Interfere With Industry in Belgium and Increase Demand Here

There is one industry in Wichita Falls which can be expected to receive an impetus from the war situation in Europe unless the world's finances are so tied up by the war that commerce will stop. That industry is the glass making industry. Belgium which is the scene of the fighting right at the opening of the war is the leading glass making country of the world. Great glass factories are located at Liege which has been besieged by the German forces. The war will not only interfere greatly with the shipping of glass wares from Belgium but will, in a great measure, stop its manufacture. A large proportion of the male population of Belgium has been called to arms and even if the war should stop in a few weeks it would be months before the glass factories would be working on a normal basis.

The effect will be, not only to withdraw Belgium made glass from competition on this side of the Atlantic, but American factories will be called upon to supply part of the trade that has been supplied by Belgium in other countries. The factories here are in good shape to turn out an immense quantity of glass during the coming season.

SEVENTH "MILLION DOLLAR MYSTERY" AT VICTORIA MON.

Private detectives and amateur sleuths kept Jones, the butler, busy answering the thumps of the great silver knocker on the front door of the Hargreaves' mansion for several weeks following the disappearance of the millionaire's treasure Jones refused admission to many, but when the Duke of Manchester and Archibald White two friend of the butler's missing master, asked to look over the ground in an effort to solve the myatery they were instantly admitted

The Duke examined the safe and the relative positions occupied by the conspirators, Jones and his master on the night the house was broken into and Hargreaves was obliged to escape in the balloon of A Leo Stevens, the aeronaut He was unable to offer any suggestions which might lead to the capture of the conspirators, however, and left the mansion much puzzled by his old friend's disappearance Later, Mr White also examined the safe carefully, but was unable to detect any secret compartments in it within which the money might be concealed

The conspirators, well aware that the money had been securely hidden, still clung to the theory that Florence Gray, Hargreaves' daughter, held the key to the solution of the mystery A third time they began to weave their net for the girl, confident that on this occasion she would not escape them Realizing that Florence and Norton and Jones must be aware of their identity the conspirators made no attempt in person to shadow their prey Instead, they hired a gangster to keep track of their intended victim

From a loose-mouthed groom in the Hargreaves' stables, the gangster learned that Florence each morning took a drive along the lake shore road near her home The tip was sufficient and once Braine and the Countess Olga were in possession of this information they laid their plans accordingly

Dressed as a feeble old man the conspirator, Albert C. Fredome, who already has been seen as an organ grinder and a French count, places himself in the roadway along which Florence was accustomed to take her morning drive Leaning heavily on a gnarled cane and disguised in a workman's cap and a long beard the conspirator completely deceives Florence As she rounds a bend in the road the conspirator falls upon his back, apparently in a fit Florence leaps from her horse and is about to lift the supposed old man to his feet, when the latter turns upon her and drags her from the roadway. Her frightened horse runs off down the road.

Florence is taken to an abandoned cabin where she is placed in the care of a bully, who bears a remarkable resemblance to the original Bill Sykes The conspirator dashes off to inform the other conspirators that for the third time the girl has been entrapped

Meanwhile Jim Norton, the reporter, is busy buying Florence an engagement ring Their little love affair has progressed to a stage, where words are not necessary to a complete understanding Florence has confessed her love for the gallant young reporter and Jim—well, Jim is hopelessly 'gone''

Returning to the Hargreaves' mansion Jim learns that Florence has left for her morning gallop Knowing her route and hoping to overtake her in his cycle car, Jim speeds along the country road He has gone scarcely half a mile, however, when Florence's frightened mare gallops madly past and farther on he discovers her bouquet which he had sent her that morning lying in the dust. Only a short distance away he comes upon her riding whip and hat lying by the roadside A confused trail of footprints as though someone had been forcibly dragged along, convince Jim that Florence again has fallen into the hands of her father's enemies. Hurriedly he trails the footprints to the deserted cabin where he rescues Florence after a desperate battle with the bully.

They have barely reached the woods leading to the road when the conspirators return and at once give chase in their own high powered automobile Putting on all speed they rapidly overhaul the small cycle-motor which Norton is driving with Florence

The chase son brings them into a small town, which is divided by a stream spanned by a draw bridge Realizing that he will be overtaken before he reaches the river Norton takes careful aim with his revolver and succeeds in puncturing one of the tires of the pursuing car just as it reaches the open drawbridge

The mighty splash which follows hides the conspirators from view. After the lapse of a few moments it is only too evident that at least one of the conspirators has been carried down to death beneath the car. The body of another shortly afterward rises to the surface and floats off down the stream, while Florence looks on in horror at the catastrophe.

tators and the authorities will take care of the survivors of the accident, he and Florence, unwilling to be involved further in the affair, hurry from the scene Reaching the Hargreaves' mansion Jim finishes the self appointed task he undertook earlier in the day, before the conspirators interfered and, in the last scene of all slips an engagement ring on Florence's finger and gathers her to him in his arms

UNUSUAL PROGRAM AT LAMAR AIRDOME MONDAY NIGHT

Golding and Keating, booked as The Long and Short of Vaudeville' opens a three days engagement here tomorrow night An Imp two reel, The Lady of the Island," featuring Ruth Donnelley, Dorothy Phillips, Frank Crane and Alexander Gaden

With the coming of summer the longing to be out in the open in the hills on the farm or perhaps on the water, even this longing is manifested in the style of plays or pictures one chooses to see Taking advantage of this, of the beautiful weather and the warm days, the Universal have sent a company of its Imp players out of New York to search out secluded hills and lakes as settings for some photoplays The Imp company, under the direction of Frank Crane and headed by Dorothy Phillips and Alexander Gaden, are at present situated on Twin Island, an ideal place for summer work and camping "The Lady of the Island' is the first picture they have produced there and what with its entrancing atmosphere and vigorous dramatic story, a more appropriate subject could not have been chosen for release at this time of the season

Among the stirring features of the play is a race between a motor boat and an eight oar shell, containing college athletes The college boys seek to rescue a girl, while those in the motor boat seek to prevent Another element of interest in the picture is a trained dog, which plays an important part in the story; it was shipped especially for the picture from Rhode Island and is acknowledged to be one of the best trained and most intelligent animals in America Practically all of the scenes are laid out of doors, rich in natural settings There is boating, yachting, camping and hunting The story is rife with surprising twists; of course there is a romance, but just how it is all going to come out keeps one guessing to the end

The story opens after the death of Vivian's father, with the reading of his will Vivian is made sole heiress while her uncle is placed over her as guardian for a term of years Should she marry, the estate goes to the husband The uncle, Ralph, determines to marry his own son, Jack to Vivian and as the estate is on a secluded island he is confident that matters will work out his way

We are then introduced to Teddy and Brian, who leave in a motor launch to look for what Brian calls 'the land of romance" They arrive at Vivian's island and make camp Vivi meanwhile annoyed by the attentions of Jack complains to her guardian, and declares her intention of returning [illegible] She

BOND ORDINANCES PASSED BY COUNCIL

TAX RATES FOR INTEREST AND SINKING FUNDS ARE FIXED

HOSPITAL ISSUE ALREADY SOLD

Others Will Probably Have To Wait Until European Situation Cools Up Somewhat.

The city council in an adjourned session Saturday morning adopted ordinances providing for the issuance of public park, fire station and hospital bonds, all of which have previously been voted. The food and milk inspection ordinance was not taken up yesterday morning, but will probably come up at another adjourned meeting upon the call of Mayor Britain.

The bonds for acquiring public parks are for $20,000 and will bear five per cent interest. They are to run forty years with option of redemption after ten years. A tax of two and one-half cents on the hundred dollars valuation was levied to provide an interest and sinking fund for the bonds.

For the $25,000 hospital bonds a tax of three cents on the hundred dollars valuation was levied.

The fire station bonds also bear five per cent. They are to be issued on sum of $7,500. A tax of one cent on th ehundred dollars valuation was levied for an interest and sinking fund.

The hospital bonds have already been sold to a Chicago firm. Until the European war situation clarifies somewhat it is not expected the other bonds can be sold.

Wichita Falls People Should Not Wait Until It Is Too Late

The appalling death rate from kidney disease is due largely to the fact that the little kidney troubles are usually neglected until they become serious. The slight symptoms often give place to chronic disorders and the sufferer may slip gradually into some serious form of kidney complaint.

If you suffer from backache, headaches, dizzy spells; if the kidney secretions are irregular of passage and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. Help the kidneys at once.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney disorders—they act where others fail. Over one hundred thousand people have recommended them. Here's a case at home:

F. McEnnis, carpenter, 1108 Scott St., Wichita Falls, Tex., says: "I suffered from pains across the small of my back and in my sides. I also had to get up frequently during the night to pass the kidney secretions. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills so highly recommended I got a box and used them as directed. In a short time I was cured."

CROWN PRINCE OF SWEDEN WANTS TO BECOME SAILOR

By Associated Press.

Copenhagen, Aug. 15.—In his ambition to become a sailor, the fifteen year old crown prince has at last won his way and obtained his father's consent. He is now a cadet on the "Absalon" and gets precisely the same treatment as any other cadets. The king had wanted the prince to continue his studies until he had passed the entrance examinations to the university.

The crown prince is a very Democratic youth. He has been a member of the Boy Scouts for three years and has often entertained his fellow scouts at the castle without any social restrictions. Whatever fell to the lot of the ordinary scout, he experienced.

He speaks English fluently and makes a hobby of American authors. For that reason he is very eager to visit America, which he now hopes to decorate as a sailor.

FLYLESS DENMARK IS HOPE OF COPENHAGEN SCIENTIST

Declares It Is Most Dangerous Animal and Is Waging Ceaseless Campaign

By Associated Press.

Copenhagen, Aug. 15.—On the billboards of Copenhagen appears the sign, "The most dangerous of all animals is not the lion, the tiger or the reptile but—the fly." This is the means Herr Falck uses in waging a campaign against flies.

Herr Falck is the bitterest enemy the fly has in Scandinavia, and his one ambition is to see a flyless Denmark. To preach his new crusade, he has organized in Copenhagen the first complete fly exhibition in the world. It contains every kind of weapon yet invented for trapping, poisoning or smashing flies. Most of these contrivances come from the United States.

An old superstition that Herr Falck hopes to rid the people of is that a Christmas fly brings good luck. A Christmas fly, according to Herr Falck, is the potential mother of 195,312,500,000 descendents in the course of the summer season.

BELIEVES SEA LEVEL CANAL WILL EVENTUALLY BE BUILT

Chief Engineer of Old French Company Says It Will Be Found Necessary

By Associated Press.

Panama, Aug. 15.—After having spent the better part of a week in an extended examination of the Panama Canal, Philip Bunau-Varilla, ex-chief engineer for the defunct New French Panama Canal Company, is still of the opinion that ultimately the Isthmus of Panama will witness the construction of a sea-level canal. He declares that at the end of the first 20 years of operation of the present lock canal it will be found necessary to reconstruct that waterway in order to take care of the increased traffic that will use it.

Bunau-Varilla is emphatic in his statement that within 20 years the present Panama Canal will have reached the limit of its carrying capacity, 50,000,000 tons annually and that then it will be found that only a sea-level canal will adequately care for the traffic. The former canal engineer makes it plain, however, that he does not mean to criticize the construction of the present lock canal, but maintains that this is merely the secondary period in the construction of a waterway across the isthmus.

Bunau-Varilla has spent most of his time since his arrival on the Isthmus in making voyages of inspection along the canal. In many of his trips he was the guest of Col. George W. Goethals, governor of the Panama Canal, who explained the work to his distinguished visitor. He has made a number of motor boat trips through the Culebra Cut and Gatun Lake. Besides this he spent many hours in a careful examination of the Gatun dam and the spillway, and watching the work at Cucaracha Slide. He was taken from dredge to dredge and chatted with many of the workmen. He was considerably impressed with the capacity for work shown by the huge 15 yard dipper dredges, both of which are actively engaged in pushing back the hill into the canal, foot of the slide.

NATIVES IN SOUTH SEAS DEMORALIZED BY MOVIES

Dramatic Films of Action and Crime Result Seriously in Effect on Islanders

By Associated Press.

London, Aug. 15.—Moving picture shows are demoralizing the South Sea natives, breaking up their old peaceful customs and inciting them to crime, says a returned traveler from that part of the world.

Although the average islander is lazy, good natured and peace-loving, he is not far removed from the days of savagery. Of an excitable and emotional nature, he is carried away by the dramatic films exhibited by promoters. An islander will pawn his last possession, says the traveler, to see a picture show.

A recent case occurred in the Samoan islands where three natives, one a former policeman, stole revolvers and started out to imitate a holdup scene. They set upon a European plantation manager and his assistant and shot both dead for resisting. The murders were followed by battles with the natives with the result that two of the band were killed in action and a third was captured and later hanged.

SCHOOL APPORTIONMENT BREAKS RECORD THIS YEAR

By Associated Press.

Austin, Texas, Aug. 15.—The 1,100,000 school children of Texas will participate in an appropriation of $8,800,000 for the fiscal year beginning Sept. 1 next. This is a per capita of $8 or $2,000,000 above any previous appropriation.

This sum does not include money set aside for Texas institutions of higher learning. More schools and better paid teachers is the interpretation school board officials put on the enlarged apportionment.

PANAMA REPUBLIC'S POLITICAL CONTEST

PRESIDENT PORRAS RETAINS CONTROL OF ASSEMBLY IN ELECTION

INTERESTING FIGHT IS WAGED

Efforts of Executive To Evade Law and Become Own Successor Are Opposed

Panama, Aug 15—The result of the recent election of members of the National Assembly apparently assures President Belisario Porras the support of nineteen out of the thirty three members who will qualify when the next session convenes in September

While this is a rather small working majority for the government faction of the Liberal party, the president and his followers are looking forward to the control of the assembly

On the other hand, the fourteen non partisans who are followers of Dr Carlos A Mendoza, who styles himself the real leader of the Liberal party in that he is the duly elected chairman or president of the Liberal National committee, believe they will be able, when the time comes, to swing the votes of enough Porras followers to do as they like in the way of legislation It is pointed out that there is much dissatisfaction with the Porras administration, even among its closest adherents

The importance of the control of the National law making body is apparent when it is remembered that this body elects five designados' or vice presidents of the republic They are not elected when the president is chosen by popular ballot, but by the assembly immediately after the presidential election when it holds its first session under the new administration

Seeks to Perpetuate Itself

It is still of greater importance this year for the reason that the present administration is said to have evolved a plan whereby it may perpetuate itself in power for another term of four years A president may not succeed himself within six months after leaving the office The control of the assembly permits him to say who shall be the first vice president It is said the scheme is to attempt the election two years hence of Dr Ramon M Valdez a friend of President Porras, to the presidency with the understanding that he shall resign at the end of his first six months in office. In the meantime Dr Porras would have been elected first vice president and he thus become president again, he having been out of the presidential office for six months, as the law provides

Such a result, however is compatable neither with the desires nor the plans of the political leaders of the republic They have heretofore made it a rule to see that no man shall be president for more than four years and therefore the leaders in his own party are opposing President Porras and attempting to wrest from him the control of the National Assembly

The factional differences date back to the convention of the Liberal party at Chitre in January It was there decided to place the political destinies of the party in the hands of a 'Directorio Nacional or National Liberal committee, with Dr Mendoza at its head The plan met the approval of President Porras but, according to Dr Mendoza, but not for long

The time came for electing candidates who should make the race for the National Assembly, which was to be elected in July The committee prepared a list of candidates and obtained their consent to stand for election As a matter of courtesy, the Mendoza faction makes this quite plain—the list was submitted to President Porras for his approval not because he was considered the leader, but merely as a prominent member of the party

Only a portion of the list met with the unqualified approval of President Porras according to Dr Mendoza who says the President proceeded to substitute a number of what he considered luke-warm friends with candidates whom he felt sure would support him in the assembly The substitution met with the immediate opposition of the National committee which proceeded to make it clear to the president that it and not he had been given the sole power to make the selection

This all took place a very few days before the election on July 5, and resulted in the submission of two Liberal party tickets to the voters. There was no Conservative party ticket in the field Conservatives who voted making use of the opportunity to strike a covert blow at the administration so its supporters declare.

Reason For Split.

This is the published reason for the split in the rank and file of the Liberal party and it is the cause that most of the leaders declare to be the only one On th eother hand, there are those and Dr Mendoza is among them who openly say that the real reason for the opposition to President Porras is his failing to keep the party faith and his forgetfulness of political promises once he had attained the highest office in the republic

The split having occurred only a very few days before election day it had not extended much beyond the two large cities Panama and Colon Lack of rapid transportation and the fact that the government telegraph and tlephone lines are in the control of the administration prevented the workers in th eprovinces from being informed In these outlying districts the Liberal party candidates naturally won, since they had no opposition

It was only in these two cities and their respective provinces that the fight took place It was in these that candidates from these two provinces that the changes were made by President Porras, according to Dr Mendoza The control of these members of the assembly is important because it has hitherto been demonstrated that they usually control the assemblymen from the provinces with little exception ty they being usually of higher mental attainments and greater political astuteness.

In the struggle for the presidencp two years hence there are already two candidates in the field Dr Rodolfo Chiari former secretary of government and justice in the Porras cabinet, is th selection of Dr Mendez while Dr Ramon M Valdez, counsellor to the department of foreign relations is declared to have the support of President Porras and his faction.

Possible Financial Stringency Also Taken Into Consideration By Impresarios

New York, Aug 15—It is agreed on Broadway that General Sherman must have been a theatrical manager Otherwise he would not have been able to express in such an explicit language just what war is

As you sit at home and read war news and have visions of Kaiser Bill challenging the world to fight you may not think that this lord of war, who is now in the role he has long wanted to play, is mussing up your theatrical plans for the winter. Well—he is

Kaiser Bill not only is striving vainglariously to muss up the whole of Europe, but through his wholesale broadside hurling of declarations of war is causing little old Broadway no end of worry

No one has been shouting during the last couple of years over wonderful successes and the outlook for the coming season, which was good until all this outbreak of a calamitous war has given it all a dull gray dressed-for-battle hue

Can't Attend Rehearsals

In the first place rehearsals for many shows may be delayed because the principals are held in Europe Whether they are unable to get a steamer home or have no the money to pay for a ticket doesn't make any difference The chances are against their returning in time for rehearsal on the date they were scheduled to begin

The press agents have jumped upon the war, incidentally, as a means of bringing these marooned actresses and actresses into print again If anyone has been overlooked they were certainly in some such places as Zrywinutzwitch and the cables refused to carry the name of th town, the censor fearing the combination might mean something or was intended to be calling the king names

But getting back to the prospects ahead, in addition to the delay in rehearsals, there is considerable doubt in the minds of managers just what effect the war may have on business If Mr U S Common People is going to conserve his resources until some idea can be gained as to how long the scrap on the other side is going to last and figure what effect it is going to have on conditions here it may be great for the movies, but a hard life for the $2.50 dress circles

There have been war times when theatres boomed During our Civil War some of th e old favorites were at the height of their fame and played to brilliant houses of civilians and army officers from the front

The Economic Effect.

The chief effect of the European war on this country however will be entirely economic The world's finances have been completely upset Export business should boom if there were ships to carry the cargoes from the country, but the theatrical managers are not convinced yet that they may not suffer

Grand opera managers are pulling their hair watching Italy and hitting high notes in knocking the war generally Italy at war might mean that such rare voices as that of Caruso and other noted songsters would be heard in army camps loudly wailing in the general direction of the camp cook instead of being wafted out over an expanse of boiled shirts and decollette gowns

There are also several German singers who may be caught in the call for reserves to fight for the fatherland Running on down the line there are members of the chorus of the grand opera companies of the secondary importance who may either go into the army or be held on the other side indefinitely while the nations are fighting things out

As an after-the-show proposition, war isn't what it is cracked up to be In the Broadway palaces orders for imported wines are said to be heavier than ever Fearing the supply may be short and possibly cut off entirely in the near future everyone is trying to drink the vats dry for fear they may not get their full share before the old well goes dry

COTTON LEAF PREVENTION URGED BY DEPARTMENT

Austin Texas, Aug. 15—Upon receiving reports of damage to cotton by leaf caterpillars and other insects, the state department of agriculture has urged all farmers to take concerted action against the pests

The department advised that the cotton plants be dusted with powdered arsenate of lead or with a mixture composed of one pound of Paris Green one pound of air slacked lime and five pounds of cheap flour Five or six pounds of the air slacked lime may be used instead of the flour says the department but the flour sticks better and attracts more insects to their death

Predictions were made today for a good late crop of cotton unless there is more rain which is unlikely

Old Mother Necessity's Family

Continues To Grow

It is simply marvelous to see some of the things the inventive mind can produce when necessity demands.

This time it is a modern dry cleaning plant in Wichita Falls.

Wichita Falls people demand as good as there is to be had in any line and we are prepared to give them the best in ours. We clean and press men's and women's clothes of every description and dry clean rugs, curtains, blankets, robes, pillows, gloves, corsets, etc.

Our plant will compare favorably with any other of the kind in the land. It is strictly modern and sanitary, equipped with the latest machinery invented for the business.

In the not far distant days of the south all of the washing, scrubbing, scouring and pressing was relegated to the old negro mammy, but in these days of scientific sanitation the negro mammy it not equal to the task.

GERMANY'S COURSE IN CRISIS EXPLAINED

IMPERIAL CHANCELLOR DEFENDS KAISER'S ACTIONS SINCE TROUBLE BEGAN

STRONG EFFORT FOR PEACE

Seeks To Place Burden of Blame Upon England and Russia Rather Than Germany

London, Aug 15—Germany's reasons for war are given in the following statement of Dr von Bethmann Hollweg, the Imperial Chancellor, in a speech in the reichstag, which was intended as an explanation to the world

We knew France was ready for an invasion France was able to wait; we were not A French aggression into our flank in the lower Rhine would have been disastrous, and we therefore were compelled to overrule the legitimate protests of the Luxemburg and Belgian governments We shall repair the wrong we are doing as soon as our military aims have been reached

Chancellor von Bethmann Hollweg then outlined the procedure of Germany in an endeavor to maintain peace, saying

From the very outbreak of the Austro-Servian conflict we worked to confine the trouble to Austria and Servia All the cabinets particularly that of Great Britain used the same endeavor Russia alone declared that she must have something to say as to the solution of the conflict and thereby raised the danger of European complications

As soon as the first definite news was received regarding the Russian military preparations, we directed a friendly but strong communication to St Petersburg, pointing out that warlike measures against Austria Hungary would find us on the side of our ally, that military preparation against us would force us to corresponding counter measures and that mobilization would not be far removed from war Russia assured us in solemn fashion of her wish for peace and demanded of military preparations against us

About the same time and prior to the receipt of this telegram the Russian emperor urgently asked the German emperor for his aid and requested the German emperor to counsel moderation in Vienna The German emperor undertook this role of mediator, but he had scarcely set in motion his office to this end when Russia mobilized all her forces against Austria Hungary The dual monarchy itself had only mobilized against Servia It had mobolized two army corps in the north, not far from the Russian frontier

The Russian mobilization was decided in principle before the Russian emperor addressed himself to the German emperor The latter notified the Russian emperor forthwith that his good offices as mediator would be made more difficult by this mobilization against Austria Hungary Nevertheless, we continued our mediation at Vienna and exercised it in forms which went almost to the extreme limit compatible with our relation as ally

During this time Russia renewed spontaneously her assurances that she was making no military preparations against us July 31 came A decision was to have been made in Vienna Our mediation already had been successful to the extent that Vienna, under pressure from us, again had entered into direct 'conversations' with St Petersburg

But before this decision could be given in Vienna the news reached us that Russia was mobilizing her entire forces, and against us also The Russian government, which knew from our repeated representations what mobilization would mean, announced that it was mobilizing, but did not give any explanation concerning its action

In the meantime England sought to mediate between Vienna and St Petersburg We warmly supported her On July 28 the emperor of Germany requested the emperor of Russia by telegraph to consider that Austria Hungary had the right and duty to protect herself against the great Servian plots and intrigues which were undermining her existence

Later in the afternoon, a telegram arrived from the Russian emperor to the German emperor In it the Russian emperor declared that his army would not take any provocative action toward us but the Russian mobilization on our frontier had been in full progress since the night of July 29 While we at Russia's request, mediated in Vienna the Russian forces were raised on our almost open frontier and France, though she did not mobilize, admits that she took some military measures

We had deliberately abstained up to that time for the sake of the peace of Europe from calling a single reservist to the colors Should we have waited patiently longer until the powers between which we are wedged in were in a position to choose the time when to deliver their blow? To have exposed Germany to this danger would have been criminal Therefore on July 31 we demanded of Russia the demobilization of her troops—her solemn assurances could yet preserve the peace of Europe The imperial German ambassador in St Petersburg was instructed to declare to the Russian government that in case of rejection of our demands we should be obliged to declare a state of war

When the time alloted expired the German emperor was compelled at five o'clock in the afternoon of August 1 to order the mobilization of our forces We were compelled at the same time to make sure what attitude France would assume in the situation To our definite question whether she would remain neutral in a German Russian war she answered that she would do what her interests bade her

Nevertheless, the German emperor gave orders that the French frontier should be respected absolutely These orders were strictly followed without exception France, which mobilized at the same hour that we did told us that she would maintain a zone of 10 kilometres back from the German frontier but what really took place was that the French aviators cast bombs upon the cavalry and patrols entered the imperial lands (Alsace Lorraine) France thereby broke the peace and actually attacked us, though a state of war had not yet been proclaimed

Even prior to this time small detachments of French troops had crossed the German frontier French aviators had thrown bombs on our railways and French troops had attacked our frontier guards at Schluchpass Our troops, in pursuance of their orders remained wholly on th edefensive These are the actual facts

Our skill has been acquired not only by study but years of experience as well This insures you a scientific examination and the accurate fitting and adjustment of glasses We know how Dr DuVal the Progressive Eye Specialist 81 1tc

PANAMA CANAL OPEN TO WARRING FLEETS

VESSELS OF ALL NATIONS MAY USE WATERWAY ON EQUAL TERMS

STRICT NEUTRALITY DEMANDED

Battleships Must Not Stop—War Department Boat Passes Through Canal Saturday

By Associated Press.

Washington, Aug 15—With the passage through the Panama canal today of the war department liner Ancon the great waterway becomes free and open to the vessels of commerce and war of all nations on terms of entire equality" in accordance with the provision of the Hay-Pauncefort treaty Vessels drawing not more than thirty feet of water now may make the passage, it would be possible to put some of the big American dreadnoughts through at any time.

Any of the foreign warships now in the Atlantic and Pacific waters also could make the trip, but the naval plans of the European powers which have vessels off both coasts of the United States are not known here No embarrassment will face the United States should one of the vessels of the belligerents seek passage Strict rules are laid down in the treaty for the protectoral neutralization of the canal and every detail will be under the direction of Governor Goethals and his staff

Except in case of absolute necessity vessels of belligerents must make an uninterrupted passage through the canal They may not coal revictual or embark or disembark troops in the canal zone These provisions also apply to the terminal waters at both ends of the canal within a limit of three miles Twenty-four hours is the limit of time a belligerent vessel may remain within the canal, except in cases of distress and a vessel of war of one belligerent cannot depart with twenty-four hours from the departure of a vessel of war of another belligerent.

All of the plants and establishments that are part of the canal are immune from attack or injury by any belligerent Vigilant American pilots will see that no foreign vessels make observations of the canal defenses

The principal work remaining to be done in completing the canal is the deepening and widening of the channel through Culebra Cut, as well as excavation operations at both approaches

MAKES "BACKACHE" QUICKLY DISAPPEAR

A Few Doses Relieves All Such Miseries. Bladder Weakness, Kidney Trouble and Rheumatism Promptly Vanish

It is no longer necessary for anyone to suffer with backaching, kidney trouble, have disagreeable bladder and urinary disorders to contend with, or be tortured with rheumatism, stiff joints, and its heart-wrenching pains, for the new discovery, Croxone, quickly and surely relieves all such troubles.

Croxone is the most wonderful remedy yet devised for ridding the system of uric acid and driving out all the poisonous impurities which cause such troubles. It is entirely different from all other remedies. It is not like anything else ever used for the purpose. It acts on the principle of cleaning out the poisons and removing the cause.

It soaks right in through the walls, membranes and linings, like water in a sponge, neutralizes, dissolves, and makes the kidneys silt out and filter away, all the uric acid and poisons from the blood, and leaves the kidneys and urinary organs clean, strong, healthy and well.

It matters not how long you have suffered, how old you are, or what you have used, the very principle of Croxone is such, that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. There is nothing else on earth like it. It starts to work the minute you take it and relieves you the first time you use it.

If you suffer with pains in your back and sides, or have any signs of kidney, bladder troubles, or rheumatism, such as puffy swellings under the eyes or in the feet and ankles, if you are nervous, tired, and run down, or bothered with urinary disorders, Croxone will quickly relieve you of your misery. You can secure an original package of Croxone at trifling cost from any first-class druggist. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if it fails in a single case.

French and German War Songs

"The Marseillaise."

"The Marseillaise" was written by Claude Joseph Rouget de Lisle, a young French officer of engineers, penned on the night of April 27, 1792 It was written in Strassburg, the principal city which was taken from France by Germany in the war of 1870 71 and around which the present conflict will probably rage

Ye sons of freedom, wake to glory
Hark! hark! what myriads bid you rise!
Your children, wives and grandsires hoary,
Behold their tears and hear their cries!
Shall hateful tyrants, mischief breeding
With hireling hosts, a ruffian band,
Affright and desolate the land,
While peace and liberty lie bleeding?
To arms! to arms! ye brave!
The avenging sword unsheathe;
March on! march on! all hearts resolved
On victory or death

Now, now the dangerous storm is rolling,
While treacherous kings confederate raise;
The dogs of war, let loose are howling,
And lo! our fields and cities blaze;
And shall we basely view the ruin,
While lawless force, with guilty stride,
Spreads desolation far and wide,
With crimes and blood his hands imbruing?
To arms! to arms! ye brave, etc

O liberty! can man resign thee,
Once having felt thy generous flame?
Can dungeons, bolts or bars confine thee
Or whips thy noble spirit tame?
Too long the world has wept, bewailing
That falsehood's dagger tyrants wield,
But freedom is our sword and shield
And all their arts are unavailing.
To arms to arms ye brave, etc

"The Watch on the Rhine."

"The Watch on the Rhine" was written by Max Schneckenburg, a Wurttemberg manufacturer, in 1840 when France was threatening the left bank of the Rhine It was set to music by Carl Wilhelm and during the Franco-Prussian war of 1870-71 was adopted as the national folk hymn and rallying cry of the army

A voice resounds like thunder peal
'Mid dashing waves and clang of steel;
"The Rhine, the Rhine, the German Rhine!
Who guards today my stream divine?
Dear Fatherland, no danger thine,
Firm stand thy sons to watch the Rhine!
They stand a hundred thousand strong,
Quick to avenge their country's wrong;
With filial love their bosoms swell,
They'll guard the sacred landmark well!
The dead of a heroic race
From heaven look down and meet their gaze,
They swear with dauntless heart, 'O Rhine
Be German as this breast of mine!"
While flows one drop of German blood,
Or sword remains to guard thy flood
While rifle rests in patriot hand—
No foe shall tread thy sacred strand!
Our oath resounds, the river flows
In golden light our banner glows;
Our hearts will guard thy stream divine;
The Rhine, the Rhine, the German Rhine!

61,000 STUDENTS ENROLLED IN GERMAN UNIVERSITIES

By Associated Press

Berlin, Aug. 15—Almost 61,000 students were enrolled at Germany's twenty-one universities in the last semester and 4,000 more attended certain lectures without being regularly inscribed The smallest university, that of Rostock, has a trifle more than a thousand students and the University of Berlin leads with 8,588 Only 5,000 of the 61,000 were women Recalling the outcry of last year or two against foreign students, one is surprised to find that there were only 6,000 foreigners enrolled. Medicine attracts the greatest number of students, but philosophy, philology and history are not far behind Most of the universities are crowded.
